

Ace of Clubs Bridge

Privacy Policy

Ace of Clubs Bridge collects personal data which is necessary for the purposes of its legitimate interests as a membership organisation and participant in an internationally recognised and regulated competitive mind sport.

The data, collected by the Club, includes members' names, addresses, email addresses and telephone numbers and is collected directly from members when they join the Club. These details are not shared or available to other members.

Members are deemed to have automatically joined after their first session unless they decline to join.

The Club collects the scores from games members play and these, together with member's names, are displayed on the Club's website results page.

Names of members are available at the sessions to enable numbers/names to be input into the BridgePals.

The information is stored in digital form on computers. The Club uses Wix, BridgeWebs and Google as the data processors for this purpose.

The Club may, from time to time, use photographs of members for their promotional material both on their website and social media.

You will receive regular emails asking you if you are free to play at the next gentle duplicate session.

We do not data share however the Club will occasionally send out information on behalf of other organisations if the Club considers them to be of genuine interest to members.

You can unsubscribe from these emails at any time by emailing aceofclubsbridge@gmail.com at any time however, your name and previous results will remain on the website.